Description

Horicon School District is seeking a full-time cross-categorical special education teacher for the 18-19 school year. This position consists of case managing, developing, and implementing IEPs for a variety of students with behavioral disabilities, including Autism, OHI and EBD.

This person will provide instruction and support within the special education setting and regular education setting. Applicants should have the following:

- 1) Current valid Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction teacher certification in the respective classifications - DPI Code Cross-Categorical Special Education and/or Emotional Behavioral Disabilities required.
- 2) Emphasis in DPI Code Emotional Behavioral Disabilities preferred.
- 3) Knowledge of Non-Violent Crisis Intervention (NVCI) strategies and techniques, or willingness to be trained.
- 4) Ability to team with other special and regular education teachers and support staff to meet the academic and behavioral needs of students in the least restrictive environment.
- 5) Understanding of the IEP process and assessment procedures.
- 6) Background in the use of supplementary materials to support students in elementary school core curriculum.
- 7) Knowledge and experience in the utilization of behavior management systems including conducting Functional Behavioral Assessment and designing Behavioral Intervention Plans.
- 8) Background in the use of social skills training models and interest/attitude scales.
- 9) Skills to developing working relationships with peers, parents, and outside agencies.
- 10) Such alternatives to the above qualifications as the Board may find appropriate and acceptable.
