

School District of Horicon

Course Outline

Learning Targets

5th-Grade Reading

UNIT: Realistic Fiction - Interpretation Book Clubs: Analyzing Themes

- The students will be able to summarize a text which will include the theme.
- The students will be able to determine a theme based on details in a literary text.
- The students will be able to read fluently and accurately at grade level to support comprehension.
- The students will be able to compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, and events, drawing on specific details in the text.
- The students will be able use text evidence to make inferences.
- The students will be able to choose text evidence that supports their thinking.
- The students will be able to determine the meaning of words in context.

UNIT: Nonfiction - Tackling Text Complexity

- The students will be able to summarize a text.
- The students will be able to determine the main idea of an informational text based on key details.
- The students will be able to read fluently and accurately at grade level to support comprehension.
- The students will be able to compare and contrast the overall structure in two or more texts using terms such as sequence, comparison, cause/effect, and problem/solution.
- The students will be able to determine the meaning of words in context.

UNIT: Argument and Advocacy

- The students will be able to explain how claims in a text are supported by relevant reasons and evidence.
- The students will be able to identify which reasons and evidence support which claims.
- The students will be able to read fluently and accurately at grade level to support comprehension.
- The students will be able to determine the meaning of words in context.

UNIT: Fantasy

- The students will be able to summarize a text which will include the theme.
- The students will be able to determine a theme based on details in a literary text.
- The students will be able to read fluently and accurately at grade level to support comprehension.
- The students will be able to compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, and events, drawing on specific details in the text.
- The students will be able use text evidence to make inferences.
- The students will be able to choose text evidence that supports their thinking.
- The students will be able to determine the meaning of words in context.
- The students will be able to explain how a series of chapters or scenes fits together to determine the overall structure of a story.

Students will be able to meet the learning targets above as evidenced by formative and summative classroom assessments.